A Collection of Sermons for Every Occasion George Thompson
2014-01-08 Two elements are vital in preaching a sermon: the correct blending of the sermon and the actual act of preaching. Gospel sermons must be prepared to meet all the needs of humankind. We should explain our sermons so that the audience could understand. We should use strong verbs and short sentences. To enjoy the fullness of God's blessings of protection, deliverance, and security, the people of God need to digest divine sermons. The sooner we understand that God is the one who has the final authority over all, the better off we will be. Avoid wasting a lot of energy worrying about things that are already under his control. God is still at work. Mankind should seek every opportunity to be converted. The term "conversion" refers to the human response to the gospel. Conversion requires the commitment of the total personality, intellect, emotion, and will. This is how people respond to the message of the gospel when they understand the nature of Christ's atonement. They feel the guilt of conviction, love God, and surrender their wills to the offer of salvation. Satan's forces of darkness are highly structured for the most destructive purposes. Therefore sermons with spiritual strength and courage are needed for our spiritual warfare. If you want to win the struggle against sin, depression, evil thoughts, immoral behavior, and demonic bondage, then submit to divine sermons. If we are not listening to divine sermons, we will drift off God's pathway and be controlled by the old nature and its appetites.

Hard Sayings of Jesus F. F. Bruce 1983-08-14 Like his original hearers many people today find Jesus' sayings hard. Some sayings are hard because they are difficult to understand, others because the demands they make on us are only too clear. F. F. Bruce examines seventy of the hard sayings of Jesus to clear away the cultural and historical difficulties which keep us from grappling with the real challenge of Jesus' message. Evident in each chapter is Bruce's keen evangelical scholarship and pastoral insight.

It's Time Dr. John Thomas Wylie 2015-08-12 This is Dr. Wylies sixth book in a series. This well-researched book invites the reader to seek out Jesus Christ and defy the devil of taking possession of another poor soul (lost soul). Published just a few years ago, Dr. Wylie published Only One God: Who Is He? The Miracles of Christ, and Know Your Enemy: The Devil, The Ministers Friend. A Believing Behaving Faith, and finally, his most recent publication you now hold in hand, Its Time for a Change!
This publication is an eye-opening experience that conveys a simple message: accept Christ, confess your sins, repent, or risk eternal damnation and unthinkable suffering. As in Dr. Wylies previous publications, once again he brings to life new heights of enthusiasm and inspiration as we learn to cleanse ourselves of sin. In Reverend Dr.
Wylies first book, our spirits were uplifted by the memories of Dr. Wylies remarkable mother, Missionary Charlye Mae Wylie, and we were moved by her uncanny strength, unswerving commitment, and bountiful love for the Holy Spirit. Charlye Maes beautiful poem God Is with Me from Dr.
Wylies first book is included as part of the opening passages of this book.

We believe that you will agree that Charlye Maes wonderful poem has a rightful place in this book you now hold in your hands. Through her poem, Charlye Mae so aptly conveys the same message that her son conveys in this book: believe In Jesus Our Savior so that you may have eternal life. We trust you will enjoy Reverend Dr. Wylies sixth inspirational book. Journey along as Dr. Wylie discusses the problems of our world and what each of us can do to save his or her soul. Yearn for an eternal life in Heaven by pondering Dr. Wylies thought-provoking passages and scripture references. They will serve to awaken your innermost thoughts, invoke prayer, and further your love for God and his only begotten Son. Dr. Wylie states: Its Time: For A Change! Indeed it is.

The Nature, Necessity and Character of True Repentance Zachary Crofton 2016-10-13 When you finish reading this practical work by Zachary Crofton on biblical repentance, you might say to yourself, "I've never repented." That's the kind of impact he is going to have on you if you read this work even in a cursory manner. In order to have a deeper walk with Christ, repentance is at the heart and life of the sinner who walks comfortably with God. However, repenting, reordering and realigning your fallen mind to sit in connection with God's will, is not as simple as praying a prayer, as some would have you believe. Crofton says that repentance is a "sense of, and sorrow for sin, as committed against God." The sinner must spread himself before the Law of God to survey the entire course of his own life. He needs to weigh himself in the balance of God's perfection. The Gospel-sinner knows he is imperfect, and in view of God's Law, which shows him his sin, he comes away not just lacking in some spiritual and moral goodness, but sees the utter viciousness of his nature against God's prescription for holiness. He then sentences himself as accursed of God, agreeing that the Law is right and good, and he knows that he is "bound" to experience God's Divine fury for his sin in hell by God's justice which is just and good. He not only sees that he is a true sinner before God, but sorrows under his understanding of sin, and is "ashamed of such a sad and sinful state." He comes to learn that repentance is a supernatural gift given to him from God, and that he must turn from sin and confess his sin. This kind of repentance is necessary to remove the wrath and judgment of God and to "answer the call of the gospel," which requires everyone to repent. Crofton explains the characteristics of true biblical repentance from 2 Corinthians 7:11. There are eight characteristics that he covers: godly sorrow, care, clearing of ourselves, indignation, fear, vehement desire, zeal and revenge against sin. And, finally, Crofton demonstrates 10 points which show how you, reader, might gain godly repentance, completely soaking the sinful heart in the blood of Jesus, with great speed, and earnestly looking for repentance only at the hands of God. This is not a scan or facsimile, has been updated in modern English for easy reading and has an active table of contents for electronic versions. Books Out-of-print 1986

Spiritual Depression D. Martyn Lloyd-Jones 2016-01-12 Spiritual Depression is one of the great classics of the modern Church and tackles the big question: If Christianity is such "good news" why are its followers often unhappy? Dr. Martyn Lloyd-Jones was possibly the greatest Christian preacher and teacher of the twentieth century. A medical doctor by training, Spiritual Depression draws together his professional understanding of the mind with a profound understanding of Christian teaching and the Bible. Spiritual Depression diagnoses the causes of the ill feeling that many Christians experience. It prescribes the practical care that is needed to lift people's spirits and bring them freedom, power and joy. Spiritual health is possible and this book explains how everyone can grasp it for themselves.

Preaching for Adult Conversion and Commitment Frank G.

Honeycutt 2003 Even though some preachers bemoan preaching's loss of importance, in fact it has rarely been more crucial than it is today. We live in a society that is becoming less and less familiar with the Christian gospel. Although preaching is only one part of the complex set of factors and relationships that leads non-Christians to commit themselves to the gospel, it remains the most visible and recognizable part. The central purpose of this book is to answer a key, seemingly simple question: how does preaching assist the Holy Spirit in the ongoing conversion of adult Christians? The book will take a close look at exactly what the sermon is doing in the larger conversion process, first for those who are new to the faith, but also for those longtime members who need a deeper commitment to the faith they claim as their own. The preacher obviously needs to know more about the sermon's specific effectiveness or shortcomings than what is briefly offered at the church door on Sunday mornings from polite (or occasionally honest) parishioners. Therefore, Frank G. Honeycutt contends, pastors seeking to learn more about the difference their sermons are making in the gathered Sunday assembly will need to be more attentive to the "how" of conversion and preaching's unique opportunity to contribute to conversion and commitment.

Why I Love the Apostle Paul John Piper 2019-01-17 "Besides Jesus, no one has kept me from despair, or taken me deeper into the mysteries of the gospel, than the apostle Paul." —John Piper No one has had a greater impact on the world for eternal good than the apostle Paul—except Jesus himself. For John Piper, this impact is very personal. He does not just admire and trust Paul. He loves him. Piper gives us thirty glimpses into why his heart and mind respond this way. Can a Christian-killer really endure 195 lashes from a heart of love? Can a mystic who thinks he was caught up into heaven be a model of lucid rationality? Can an ethnocentric Jew write the most beautiful call to reconciliation? Can a person who lives with the unceasing anguish of empathy be always rejoicing? Can a man's description of the horrors of human sin be exceeded by his delight in human splendor? Can a man with a backbone of steel be as tender as a nursing mother? If we know this man—if we see what Piper sees—we too will love him. Paul's testimony is a matter of life and death. Piper invites you into his relationship with Paul in the hope that you will know life, forever.

The Secret Thoughts of an Unlikely Convert Rosaria Champagne Butterfield 2014 "Rosaria, by the standards of many, was living a very good life. She had a tenured position at a large university in a field for which she cared deeply. She owned two homes with her partner, in which they provided hospitality to students and activists that were looking to make a difference in the world. In the community, Rosaria was involved in volunteer work. At the university, she was a respected advisor of students and her department's curriculum. And then, in her late 30s, Rosaria encountered something that turned her world upside down -- the idea that Christianity, a religion that she had regarded as problematic and sometimes downright damaging, might be right about who God was. That idea seemed to fly in the face of the people and causes that she most loved. What follows is a story of what she describes as a train wreck at the hand of the supernatural. These are her secret thoughts about those events, written as only a reflective English professor could."--Back cover.
