Extraordinary Encounters Jerome Clark 2000-12-15 Here is the first A-Z encyclopedia to explore the convictions held by many in the modern day world that extraterrestrials, angels, fairy-folk, and other-dimensional intelligences regularly interact with human beings. Extraordinary Encounters: An Encyclopedia of Extraterrestrials and Otherworldly Beings is the Awakening to the Extraordinary Ramtha 2007 "When is living the same boring existence enough? When will you wake up and create a new dream and indeed a new paradigm? In my lifetime I would term those adventures. When you wake up and decide you wish to have an adventure, the ways and means to that adventure simply fall into place because you want it and you are ready for it. It is quite amazing. This is a divine quality and is not coincidence. Consciousness and energy creates the nature of reality, and whatsoever you think becomes your life. It is what gives you that essence of divinity." - Ramtha For more information about Ramtha and his original international school of the mind and ancient wisdom, offering courses live and online around the world for the last 4 decades, visit: Ramtha.com

Forgotten Gods Waking Up Ramtha 2001 And if no one ever teaches you to dream the unlimited dream, if no one ever teaches you to breathe the breath of God's nostrils in spring, and if no one ever teaches you to look at a midnight sky and contemplate the concepts of forever, no one ever teaches you this, then you will be forever separated by God, its natural kingdom, its illustrious beauty, its intoxicating magic and enchantment. You will never know it. You are to learn that this is what the true nature of your being is, and that when you learn this you will know that the Lord God of your being is not trying to take you from life but to wake you up in the midst of it. And it is not one that argues for its limitation but barrels down the walls that limit you from expression. - Ramtha A Master's Reflection on the History of Humanity Ramtha (the enlightened one (Spirit)) 2003

Question Your Thinking, Change the World Byron Katie 2007-10-01 In this powerful book of quotations, Byron Katie talks about the most essential issues that face us all—love, sex, and relationships; health, sickness, and death; parents and children; work and money; and self-realization. The profound, lighthearted wisdom embodied within is not theoretical; it is absolutely authentic. Not only will this book help you on many specific issues, but it will point you toward your own wisdom and will encourage you to question your own mind, using the four simple yet incredibly powerful questions of Katie's process of self-inquiry, called The Work. Katie is a living example of the clear, all-embracing love that is our true identity. Because she has thoroughly questioned her own mind, her words shine with the joy of understanding. "People used to ask me if I was enlightened," she says, "and I would say, 'I don't know anything about that. I'm just someone who knows the difference between what hurts and what doesn't.' I'm someone who wants only what is. To meet as a friend each concept that arose turned out to be my freedom."

I Am A Woman, I Am A God Louise Oliverio 2006-12 My writing, I Am A Woman, I Am A God (not for women only), refers to the concept that God is within us all, including, women. I write about how women have been the most prejudiced people in history of mankind, even today. I talk about how and why it came to be that most women and humanity in general find it difficult to believe the greater power residing within. I have added other understandings I have gained regarding what humanity's belief is, in general, to having "rights" and what having

"rights" really means to us as individuals. In addition, my experiential understanding of "choice" along with the concept that "choice" is limited by our lack of knowledge. Concluding with how the above understandings can and does alter your destiny, I have given some insight into the ability we all have to affect our fate.

CHAPTER 1 I am a Woman, I am a God For many years I had known that God was within me, that I was a God. I thought I believed it. What I didn't know was that there was an attitude in me, which really didn't believe it. The understanding of that came after many years of study in Ramtha's School of Ancient Wisdom. I came to understand my ignorance in that, somewhere in my subconscious mind, I really thought only a man could be God. Why wouldnt I think that, after all it is what women have always been taught? In all the religions, who is God? A man of course! - Well teaching the word of God couldnt come from a woman because too- man- is the representative of God. Isnt he?? Oh! And what about those Gurus - men too arent they? Popes, Priests, Rabbis, etc. Well, where do women fit in the scheme of things? Are we to be forever subservient to God and man? Destiny by Right Destiny by Right was a hard learned lesson for me. The reason it was so hard was because I hadnt known that I had a limitation as to what I had a right to experience, own, be, love, freedom to express and every other good thing one would want for oneself as destiny. Having been born in the united states of America under the auspices of being free and having unalienable rights under God, one necessarily assumes that means free by right to whatever one wants in life (within the guidelines of moral code of course). I had no reason to think otherwise, until I came to understand by and through my being a student of the Ramtha School of Enlightenment Ancient School of Wisdoms basic and absolute teaching that we are gods, creators in personal reality. Somehow though not all my desires or manifestations were realized. If they were, sometimes it didnt last very long in my experiential reality. I was left wondering, why reality occurred that way for me? What were my limitations? CHAPTER 3 Destiny by Choice Who do I want to be? Where do I want to go? What would I like to experience? With whom shall I share my life? These are some of the many questions, without limit, one could ask oneself but what are the answers?.....

When the smoke is cleared the question remains where do I go from here? Now that I know I can create anything, what will it be? - That perhaps is the hardest question most of us can ask ourselves. We are only limited by our own understanding and knowledge base. What we don't know exists, we can't dream about. The importance of knowledge, therefore, is clearly seen. We don't know what we don't know!

CHAPTER 4 Destiny's Time Line So what is our destiny going to be? Can we change it? I have been taught by Ramtha that we most certainly can change it and do with every thought we have. If, however, we have the same old thoughts, then we have the same destiny we started with unfolding in our lives. Time lines are an interesting su

Empire of Illusion Chris Hedges 2009-07-28
Pulitzer prize-winner Chris Hedges charts the dramatic and disturbing rise of a post-literate society that craves fantasy, ecstasy and illusion. Chris Hedges argues that we now live in two societies: One, the minority, functions in a print-based, literate world, that can cope with complexity and can separate illusion from truth. The other, a growing majority, is retreating from a reality-based world into one of false certainty and magic. In this "other society," serious film and theatre, as well as newspapers and books, are being pushed to the margins. In the tradition of Christopher Lasch's The Culture of Narcissism and Neil Postman's Amusing Ourselves to Death, Hedges navigates this culture — attending WWF contests as well as Ivy League graduation ceremonies — exposing an age of terrifying decline and heightened self-delusion.

The Jewel in the Lotus Dr. Douglas M. Baker 2014-03-02 The Jewel in the Lotus: This book is a masterpiece and with good reason can be called the flagship amongst Dr. Baker's many books. Using scientific analogies he introduces the reader to the seven fundamental postulates that form the basis of the Ancient Wisdom, that body of teachings handed down through the ages and taught by the Mystics of all Religions and Mystery Schools in today's, easy to understand words. The reader is introduced to the concept of Hylozoism, the proposition that all things, organic and inorganic are filled with life from the tiniest atom to the greatest galaxy. The author describes the nature and origin of the Seven Rays, knowledge of which leads to an understanding of Esoteric Psychology. An introduction to Esoteric Astrology is given and the basic questions of why we are here and where we are going are answered from the esoteric viewpoint. Your understanding of this vast subject will be enhanced by the inclusion of over eighty images and charts, many in colour. Jesus Christ, the Life of a Master Ramtha 2006

Saving Jesus Dr Miceal Ledwith 2017-11-04
Jesus promised that those who truly put his teachings into practice would do all the wonders he did and greater. Why then, even after 2,000 years, has there never yet been any significant sign of these wonders happening in any of the more than 20,000 Christian Churches and Congregations that are proud to bear his name today? The Crucifixion took place on the eve of Passover. That major Jewish Festival centered on the sacrifice of a lamb on the altar of the Temple. The shedding of its blood was believed to wash our sins in the sight of God. It was almost inevitable that the earliest followers of Jesus would have tied Jesus to the Sacrificial Lamb of Passover. Over the centuries this warped belief that Jesus is a Suffering Savior, who came here to die for our sins, has dealt a crippling blow to the emergence of the spiritual power that he promised us. There is hope. This book assaults those crippling beliefs by an investigation that ranges through history, the religious mindset, and the workings of the brain. It shows how we can learn to change these deeply embedded and subconscious programs. As Jesus said: "Those who have ears to hear let them hear."

A Culture of Conspiracy Michael Barkun 2006 Unravelling the genealogies and permutations of conspiracist worldviews, this work shows how this web of urban legends has spread among sub-cultures on the Internet and through mass media, and how this phenomenon relates to larger changes in American culture.

The Mind Gladiators of the Future Ramtha The Enlightened One 2016-09-03 This book gathers Ramtha's teachings that illustrate the journey one must take to understand the nature of time and how to create our timelines and destiny consciously and intentionally. Significantly, and what often passes by before us unnoticed, is what we must do to conquer our humanity, riddled with limitations and doomed to the grave. What does it take to become legendary beings, worthy of being remembered beyond time? Ramtha explains that focus is the master key to accomplish the task and offers us various practical ways in which to put it into practice. The Master's teaching delves into the concept of the river of time, a mind frequency specific with the future, how we can reprogram our brain with an immortal dream of metamorphosis, and how to create and mold the wave of reality, from the point of view of a master. "These are very simple little notes, but within them hold the secrets to a seventh-level master, a multidimensional entity, an impressive master who has the magic to make things happen." - Ramtha The question that has escaped us and remained largely unclear to this day is this: What is the art, the Holy Grail for conquering time and reach immortality? The masters and teachers throughout history have always insisted that the path and the answer are usually very simple.

They require, nevertheless, an unwavering dedication to the knowledge and its application in life by our own hand in order to reach our goal. This art is the craft of the Great Work, where the rough metals of our mortal humanity are transmuted through initiations in the knowledge. Our base metals are transformed into the purest metal of all that never tarnishes or ages like solid gold. This ancient and legendary knowledge is the wisdom that recognizes the divine inside each human being, simply because we are the creators of our destiny by virtue of our thoughts and their impact on reality. This is the message and teaching of the Master Teacher Ramtha the Enlightened One, the Lord of the Wind, presented in this book. It is the unusual story of how to become the master time, conquer one's self, and reach immortality. Now is the time for waking up and coming to know the secrets that had remained hidden under the custody of a rare few. The key is in your hands and the door only you can open it. It has always been that way so you can discover, in person, the power and treasure that are preserved locked within you. Remember, the truth is really discovered when you experience it. To an extraordinary journey! Jaime Leal Anaya Editor and Writer, Hun Nal Ye Publishing www.Hun-Nal-Ye.com

Last Waltz of the Tyrants Ramtha Ramtha
2018-08-03 What is in your future? What is coming on the horizon for our planet and our civilization? How can you be better prepared for change? Ramtha has been teaching about the days to come -- the days that are already here -- since his first appearance in the late 1970s. Last Waltz of the Tyrants, the Prophecy REVISITED, captures Ramtha's teachings and predictions over twenty years ago that describe the drastic changes that are coming from natural upheaval to economic and political turmoil. Ramtha explains the forces behind these changes and the many events throughout history -- including our near future -- which have been carefully planned out by a few. Many things Ramtha predicted three decades ago can clearly be confirmed in many of today's news headlines, yet there is more to come, according to Ramtha. Although the future may seem daunting and grim, Ramtha forecasts a greater destiny in the making with the help of advanced civilizations who love humanity: the dawning of superconsciousness -- a new age -- and a more evolved human race. This destiny -- those changes I talked about so long ago in your time -- is coming into full manifestation. Go and look at them. What sounds common to you now was uncommon then. -- Ramtha July 1992

The Reincarnation of Edgar Cayce? Wynn Free
2004-03-11 Discover the legacy of the most famous psychic of the 20th-century in this stirring exploration of psychic abilities, reincarnation, and other paranormal phenomena. There are remarkable parallels between the work of David Wilcock and Edgar Cayce—the legendary clairvoyant, ‘sleeping prophet’, and

‘father of holistic medicine’. Here, author Wynn Free explores these parallels, building a convincing case that the two men shared the same source of prophetic information—and that Wilcock might indeed be Cayce’s reincarnation. Compiling some of Wilcock’s most inspirational and life-transforming prophetic guidance from his channeled Source, this book conveys profound insights into topics such as earth changes, secret cabals, soul evolution, death and reincarnation, ascension, crop circles, and the theory of evolution. Explaining how energetic increases occurring in the Sun and planets can have scientifically-measurable, far-reaching effects in a number of realms, The Reincarnation of Edgar Cayce presents new evidence that this energy can transform DNA, potentially making ESP, telekinesis, levitation, and other paranormal activities as common as breathing and usher in the Golden Age promised by every major spiritual tradition in human history. Readers will come away with a deeper understanding not only of the life and work of both Wilcock and Cayce, but with a broader sense of the many forces—seen and unseen—at work in the universe today.

Preparing for Contact Lyssa Royal 2011-10-01
Extraterrestrial contact is happening now. We may not remember it clearly. We may think it is only a dream. We may ignore the signs of contact because we do not understand them. And most of all, we may simply be too frightened to fully acknowledge its presence. The contact experience is intricately tied to the nature of human consciousness. When we as a species evolve, so will the nature of our contact experiences. Part 1 was first published in 1994. This new edition includes part 2, and is a groundbreaking book with all new information that explores Lyssa's contact research around the world from 1994 to present day. It is a combination of narrative, channeled material from renown channel Lyssa Royal, and personal accounts from teams of contact pioneers -- those who research ET contact in real time and reach out to initiate contact through their work with specially trained contact teams. An inside look at the ET contact experience is given, including what the human consciousness experiences during contact and how our perceptions of reality change as we meet with beings from other worlds. The authors present a breathtaking look at the contact phenomenon and its connection to the evolution of the human species.

A Master's Key for Manipulating Time Ramtha 2002 We rearrange the past every time we manifest, every time we manifest. You never take a pot of gold out of Fort Knox. That would be robbery. But anytime you want to manifest gold that has got a minted mark on it that is acceptable as currency, then you are rearranging the past and your involvement in past events that happened thirty, forty, fifty years ago, and suddenly you are going to live an event that brings you that gold. And all the history books will be rewritten, and one day you will open up and see that you are one of the people involved in it. Of course you didn't know that now because it is yet to be rewritten. So the study then of the Great Work is to manipulate reality and evolve it. - Ramtha

The Brain - The Creator of Reality and a Lofty Life Ramtha 2014-04-03 In this second book of Ramtha's wisdom by Hun Nal Ye Publishing, we present to you a collection of some of the most poignant and riveting Ramtha teachings on the brain and the art of how to activate it and realize its grandest potential. "The brain clearly is the most necessary element to a God because without it there is no dream. Without the brain holding the dream, taking a bit of consciousness and then constructing it, we do not evolve." "The more you contemplate a lofty thought - a philosophical, lofty thought, no matter how mundane or outrageous it may be - your brain is constructing a model, an idea, and sets it right in the frontal lobe. Whatever makes it to this precious place becomes law." - Ramtha This book is divided into three parts. The first one, entitled "How the Brain Creates Reality," sets the stage and describes the various parts of the brain and nervous system involved in creating reality. Ramtha shows how this is actually happening all the time and describes in detail what it takes for us to develop the art of willful thought and observation. The second and central part of this book is entitled "Opening the Door to the Deep Subconscious." This part is key, as it explains many ancient mysteries about the power of the divine residing within each human being. Ramtha explains that the hidden door to divine intelligence and the power of creation is an actual part and natural function of the human brain. Finally, the third part of the book, "On the Wings of a Lofty Thought," is an inspiring invitation to strive for a greater mind that in turn produces a more magnificent life naturally. This is the knowledge legendary Masters and historical people of renown discovered and came to know in their life. Ramtha masterfully evolves the concept of conquering one's self and slaying the dragon in this second book that was first introduced in our first book, The Mind Gladiators of the Future. The conquest of the initiate now becomes the raising to the head of the fabled kundalini energy coiled at the base of the spine - the dormant raw energy of the dragon - in order to open that hidden door of the subconscious mind and activate those latent regions of the brain designed for extraordinary potential and enlightenment. Parallel Lifetimes Ramtha Ramtha 2004-02 Part of Ramtha Fireside Series on the topic of parallel universes and creating dramatic change in our life using the principles of quantum physics. "A shift in quantum state brings a parallel lifetime, and now everything in that lifetime is different. The relationship to you and your environment is lifted, for what compelled you before is not a compelling influence in the new shift. You are now in a parallel existence. In the parallel existence our mind does not leave our body behind in the old state but rather the body can also live in parallel existences because it is made of quantum material. It is now shifted into the new hall, the new life, and everything is different. What becomes apparent is that the climax that governed your life once before is now at rest. The old climax is not apparent in the new life and its influences are not seen in people, places, things, times, and events. That is the truth. This knowledge is the key to the kingdom of heaven." - Ramtha For more information about Ramtha and his original international school of the mind and ancient wisdom, offering courses live and online around the world for the last 4 decades, visit: Ramtha.com

Religion and Anthropology Brian Morris 2006
This important textbook provides a critical introduction to the social anthropology of religion, focusing on more recent classical ethnographies. Comprehensive, free of scholastic jargon, engaging, and comparative in approach, it covers all the major religious traditions that have been studied concretely by anthropologists - Shamanism, Buddhism, Islam, Hinduism, Christianity and its relation to African and Melanesian religions and contemporary Neopaganism. Eschewing a thematic approach and treating religion as a social institution and not simply as an ideology or symbolic system, the book follows the dual heritage of social anthropology in combining an interpretative understanding and sociological analysis. The book will appeal to all students of anthropology, whether established scholars or initiates to the discipline, as well as to students of the social sciences and religious studies, and for all those interested in comparative religion.

He describes a hidden civilization within the Earth's core and explains the sacred symbolism of the pyramids of Egypt, monuments built with the help of alien technology and alien races who love humanity as reminders of our forgotten divinity. A pivotal point in human history was the advent of Jehovah in the Middle East. Much of the corruption and editing of the ancient wisdom happened during this period, followed by Christianity's interpretation of the teachings of Yeshua ben Joseph, and other religions where the link to each individual's inner sanctum and divine nature was forgotten and lost. Ramtha describes the emergence of Christ consciousness in each person as enlightenment in modern times. The conclusion of this work, in two parts, is an inspiring vision of the next stage awaiting the evolution of humanity and the dawn of a new enlightenment.
